4. Dominican Republic

Garcia Godoy told Ambassador Bunker yesterday that he plans to take no action on the Santiago investigation report until after the Christmas weekend. In contrast to his outlook earlier in the week, Garcia Godoy now seems to feel that public clamor for immediate action has died down.

There was a great deal of gunfire in Santo Domingo last night. Most of it probably resulted from holiday celebrations.

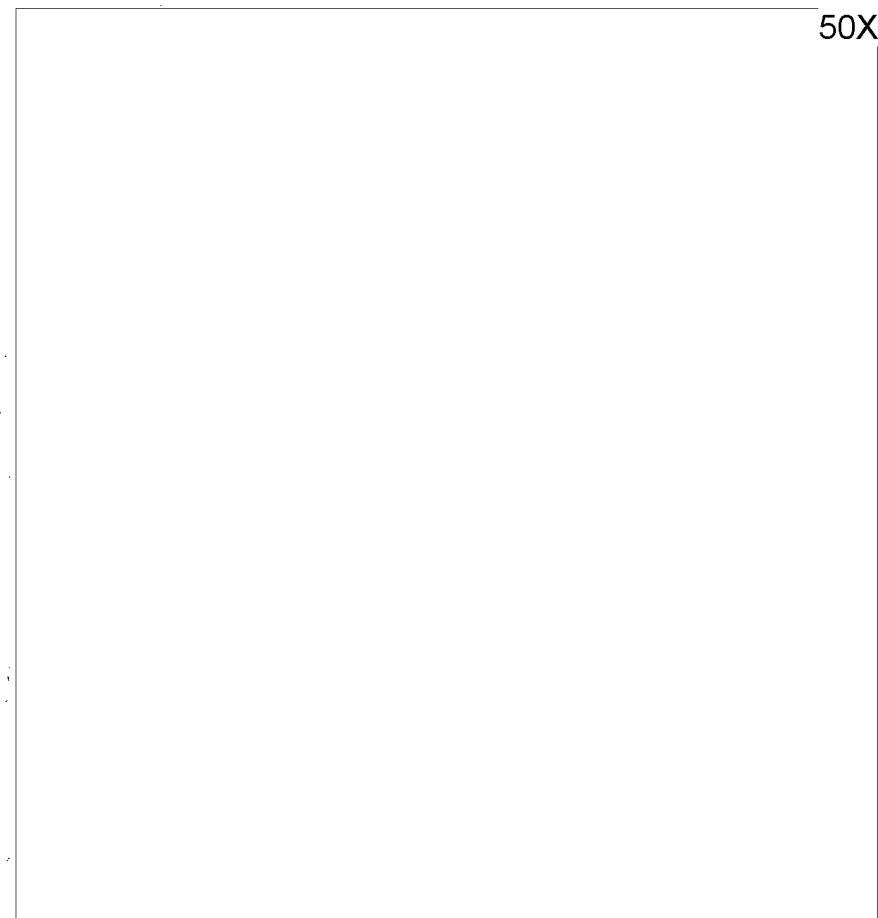

5. Vietnam

There have been no reports of major military action in South Vietnam so far 50X1 today.

On the diplomatic front, Guinea President Sekou Toure says he will send his foreign minister to Hanoi soon to obtain in writing a statement from Ho Chi Minh regarding negotiations. 50X1
